Housekeeping notes

Hi Printmakers,

Along with many of you, I have had a very hectic time both personally and professionally which has delayed the publication of this newsletter.

PAWA's recent members exhibition, our programme of workshops, skills share sessions and keeping up with many of the fabulous creative many of you are engaged in is fun but also takes time and effort by our team and of course those creating the prints.

The delay in publication is perhaps beneficial as it allows me to break some important news alluded to on the front cover in a timely fashion.

NEWSFLASH 1.

Our AGM for 2022 will be held at the end October or early November. We will advise you of the date very soon.

Both Haya Cohen, Secretary and Aileen Hoath, Membership Coordinator have decided not to renominate for the Committee in 2023. This will be a huge loss for PAWA as both Haya and Aileen have performed very important administrative tasks as well as bringing a creative finesse to our exhibitions. We will also miss the assistance of Aileen's partner Cam Kneen who has been of great assistance with our web and other tech advice.

I wish them both well as they take time to pursue their own creative paths, hopefully we will see their work in future exhibitions.

Very importantly these positions will need to be filled to enable our banking to be done, to allow new members to join, to upload documents, to emails members, to sign official documents and much more including planning and managing events, running the web page etc etc.

Please have a think about how you may be able to help out with some of these tasks, or indeed if you would like to nominate for one of the positions.

We really do need more help from our membership to keep PAWA healthy and growing.

Please feel free to call me any time if you have any suggestions or can offer any assistance.

NEWSFLASH 2.

PAWA has been advised by the City of Nedlands that our lease at Tresillian Art Centre will not be renewed after it expires in June 2023. They wish to use the space PAWA has occupied to develop other programmes.

We are therefore starting to think about the best way to find a new suitable and affordable studio space so that we can continue to host our full range of activities. In my dreams there is also a gallery space.

Again, if you have any ideas or know some helpful contacts please be in touch.

Fremantle Arts Centre has confirmed our booking for the entire Moores Building in April/May 2023 when we plan to hold our PAWA Contemporary Print Media Awards. I am hoping some of you will join the team to make this happen.

Lastly, I would like to congratulate our Patron Leon Pericles on his recent Taming A Tumultuous Palette exhibition at Linton & Kay Galleries Subiaco. The show was sold out before it opened. Leon's new paintings were wonderful and his prints clever as always.

It was a pleasure to be able to attend the opening event.

Leon is now busily preparing for the Margaret River Open Studios, which is a feast of creativity I know many of you enjoy.

We must also thank Leon for his ongoing interest and support, PAWA is all the richer for it.

Until next time, stay well, be creative and have a think about you may be able to share some of your skills with us as we move forward.

Elizabeth Morrison

President.
