Housekeeping notes

Hi Printmakers,

We are getting some very lovely entries for the 2023 Contemporary Print Media Awards and look forward to having your work in the show.

This exhibition is open to all printmakers residing in Western Australia whose work meets the criteria. It promises to be a comprehensive and exciting overview of contemporary printmaking in Western Australia. All works included will have an element that is hand pulled.

We are holding discussions about our new studio space. It is quite a complex process and as soon as we have a firm agreement I will pass on the information.

Our 2023 memberships are due. Most previous members have renewed all with quite a few new members which is always great. More ideas and skills to share.

We have started to consider gallery options for our 2024 members exhibition. Again, we will keep you posted when we have made our decision.

Our skill share sessions are up and running again. They are a great way to learn and be social.

We look forward to seeing you at 10AM on March the 4th at Tresillian Arts Centre.

Our topic will be Monotypes: show us your style, so there will be plenty to discuss while enjoying a cuppa and snack.

Until next time happy printmaking, stay safe and well.

Elizabeth Morrison

President.

INFLUENCE investigates the origins of originality and celebrates the interdependence of artists.

Artists all need to be surrounded by other artists to critique, applaud, support and challenge • More fundamentally, art never happens in a vacuum, it arises from the accidental jostling of all the images, ideas and inspirations you have collected in the curiosity of your mind • Art is always building on what has come before.
