Housekeeping notes

Hi Printmakers,

Vale Jean Laing.

Jean a long time PAWA member and wonderful printmaker recently passed away. Jean will be sadly missed by those who knew her.

Well done to all of you who have work selected in awards shows and been in other exhibitions.

Please flick us an email at admin@pawa.org.au so that we can share your news.

Congratulations to Committee member Shelley Cowper on yet another award, 3rd prize at the 2023 Melville Art Awards on until 12th November, for her work 'Portholes and Portals'.

Also, to Katie Glaskin for taking out the City of Melville Resident Award with her work 'The Angel's Share'.

Don't miss hearing Katie discussing all things print during her artist's talk at Earlywork Gallery 2PM November 18th.

Our last skillshare at Tresillian will be on Saturday November 4th, come along to share in some printmaking and do some reminiscing.

The Notice for our 2023 AGM to be held on Saturday 2nd December at 2PM is included again in this newsletter, we are hoping for a great turnout. While most of the committee has indicated that they will stay on board, some are leaving. If you think you can help in any way, we would love to hear from you. Don't forget you maybe able to fill a regular role without being a committee member. We certainly look forward to a full and prosperous year of printmaking in 2024.

At 3PM we will be having our End of Year and Farewell to Tresillian Party. Family and friends are welcome. Bring a plate, drinks provided. All welcome.

While at the time of publishing I cannot give you a firm answer on where our next studio may be.

I can say the future of PAWA is bright!

We will again be presenting awards to students graduating in print from Curin, ECU and TAFE. This provides a wonderful opportunity to view so great art, get to know more printmakers and offer the opportunity for them to be part of a vibrant printmaking community after their degree is completed.

2024 will be PAWA's 50th Anniversary Year.

We have been accepted at Moore's Building Contemporary Art Space to hold a member's exhibition, probably later in 2024.

We plan to make this a gala event and exhibition; details will be posted as soon as they are available.

PAWA must again thank our Patron Leon Pericles AM for opening his studio exclusively to PAWA members for a fantastic morning tea and discussion of all things art.

It certainly is worth being a member to have the chance to share in these opportunities.

Our membership continues to grow with 3 new members in the past month.

See you at skill share, the AGM or next year at our exhibition.

Best wishes

Elizabeth Morrison

This is a chance to get some art for Christmas starting with unframed works from $50 each, and many small framed works for only a few hundred dollars. There will be some major works as well. This is a chance to get quality work from experienced artists at affordable prices. A little information on each artist:

Willemina Foeken is an artist and art teacher and still teaches in her studio. She has exhibited interstate, in NY and the Netherlands. At the exhibition Willemina will do half hour portraits for $30.

Shirley Winstanley is self-taught. She has been an exchange artist to Italy, has had paintings in a local full length movie and has work in collections in Australia and overseas. She conducts workshops in drawing and painting.

Georgia Efford has been an art teacher and university lecturer in art history, painting and drawing all through her travels and absorbing what many cultures offered. Then years of purposeful travel in Asia, Europe and Africa. The last five years feel like a flowering through oil painting, working on the theme of "Nature and Time".

Hello, could this please be posted to members. A very worthwhile cause, many thanks.

Fiona Stanley Hospital is a key part of Western Australia's medical infrastructure and a very busy Hospital. It has kilometres of blank corridors that desperately need suitable artwork to enliven the spaces and engage the hospital patients.

There are two ways you could assist –
Donate artwork to the hospital as an act of philanthropy or become a sponsor that enables the Hospital to acquire artworks which in turn, also supports the local art community.

If you would like to contribute, please contact Peter Lowe for more information.
