

PAWA Workshops: Presenter Terms and Conditions

PARTICIPANTS:

Workshop participants must be PAWA members.

Non-members are welcome to apply for PAWA membership prior to registering for a workshop by following the Join PAWA link on the pawa.org.au homepage. They should allow at least one week for their application to be processed before being eligible to register online for a workshop.

Unless otherwise agreed with the presenter:

- Maximum 10 places available.
- Minimum 6 places must be booked for workshop to proceed.

LOCATION:

PAWA Studio at Tresillian Arts Centre, 21 Tyrell St, Nedlands.

TIME:

We can assist you in determining a suitable date for your workshop.

Workshops on a Saturday or Sunday run for up to 6 hours usually commencing at 10AM.

Certain workshops may be run over more than 1 day subject to availability of suitable days.

EQUIPMENT and MATERIALS:

Use of PAWA equipment is included. Please check with our PAWA studio coordinator Petra Sara at petrasara11@gmail.com if you have any queries.

Workshop presenters are requested to list and cost any materials they will provide for the conduct of their workshop.

A materials cover charge will be added to the workshop registration fee for participants.

WORKSHOP FEES:

Registration fee is $72 plus materials (unless otherwise agreed with PAWA).

Payment for workshop registration (including the materials charge) is made to PAWA.

REMUNERATION AND REIMBURSEMENT:

PAWA pays the workshop presenter:

- $48 an hour workshop presentation fee plus 1 hour of preparation time.
- a materials charge for each participant (Max $20 per head).

Payment to the presenter will be made within 7 days after the workshop.

PAWA March 2021